

The National Alliance to End Homelessness and the National Law Center on Homelessness and Poverty have launched a series of audio conferences around the $1.5 billion Homelessness Prevention and Rapid Re-Housing Program (HPRP), which can fund prevention, diversion, and re-housing activities. Watch this page for details on future calls, and look below to download recordings of previous calls in this series.

Upcoming Calls

Q & A with HUD - April 1 from 2:00 to 3:00 pm ET

On April 1, the Alliance and the National Law Center on Homelessness and Poverty (NLCHP) will be co-hosting an audio conference on the guidance recently issued by HUD for the new Homelessness Prevention and Rapid Re-Housing Program (HPRP). Staff from HUD will be available to answer questions.

HUD Webcast - April 8; time TBA

On April 8, HUD will host its official webcast dedicated to details of HPRP. The webcast is designed to provide information about the details of the program.

Using HPRP to Transform Your Homelessness System - April 16 from 1:00 to 2:30 pm ET

On April 16, the Alliance and NLCHP will co-host an audio conference on how use HPRP funds to transform a homeless assistance system to one focused on homelessness prevention and housing stability. Speakers will focus on strategies for sustaining prevention, diversion, and re-housing programs beyond the three years of HPRP funding, including the key partnerships necessary to fully take advantage of that opportunity.